Purpose: as a Ball State University TCOM graduate, am seeking a job in production and editing in an environment that will encourage growth and high-level work. Willing to travel and relocate as needed.

Industry-related experience:

May 2009 Camera-Operator during Indy 500 for ESPN affiliate, Athletes In Motion Sports Television, Inc.

Fall 2008 Internship with Rutter Media: worked with a team of advertisers and learned how to edit on Avid. Other duties included setting up sets for several shoots in the studio and on location.

Scripted and filmed a 30 second P.S.A. titled Traffic for CaptionInfo.org. It was recently (Feb. 2009) placed on the National Association of Broadcasters rotation for nationwide distribution.

Summer 2008 BSU Summer HD Movie Free Wall: Camera-operator during this immersion program. Student crew. It premiered at the IMAX Theater in Indianapolis on May 2, 2009, and will be entered for a Student Emmy Award.

Spring 2008 Member: Indiana Foodways Alliance and Ball State Business Fellows—this is a statewide Video Team dedicated to producing stories reflecting the food culture of Indiana.

2007 - 2009 Indiana Outdoors -- an Emmy-nominated weekly half-hour television show about the natural resources, historical sites, and outdoor recreational opportunities, distributed throughout Indiana TV markets. Served as videographer for the battle reenactment segment shot at Mississinewa, near Marion, IN. Also shot and gave editing suggestions on the story on Bluespring Caverns in Bedford, IN. In October 2008, produced and filmed a story on the Whitewater Canal Trail in Brookville.

2006-2007 Cardinal Filmworks – this is the student gateway for DV films and The “Film Club” at Ball State. We sponsor the Frog Baby Film Festival each year, and also are the umbrella organization for many video shorts made by student producers and directors. In 2006, collected audio for Lucky—6 minute short about a guy who is down on his luck and wins the lottery.
